Dear Mr. Weisberg,

A fellow researcher from Canada told me that, during one of your fine lectures down in Florida, none other than one of Secret Service agent Roy Kellerman's daughters got up and said something rather controversial (something to the effect of, "My father knew the real story of what happened" — ?). If it is possible, I would be grateful if you could share this information with me. You are a man I greatly respect (I think "Post Mortem" is a classic)!

Sincerely,

Vince Palamara
